Industrial Conclave

To surge ahead in this world of cut throat competition, one needs to have a proper blend of technical skills and managerial skills. To achieve this, IIT-BHU has organized this Industrial Conclave 2021, where several renowned industries are invited to strengthen the alliance between academics and industries. The conclave will provide a forum for industry professionals, academicians, faculties and research scholars to interact and exchange their thoughts and perspectives on India's recent technological advancements at ground level.

We are delighted to welcome you to attend this Conclave on 10th September 2021 and partake in the proceedings.
